

PRESS RELEASE - PERFROMANCE

For Immediate Release

Date: _____

A Christmas Carol on stage this weekend

_____ – Local young people and adults take the stage this weekend with your community
two professional actors to present Prairie Fire Theatre's original musical production of the Charles Dickens' classic, A Christmas Carol.

Performances are scheduled for _____ at _____ in _____.
days(s), date(s), and time(s) location community

Written in 1843, A Christmas Carol continues to be a seasonal favorite, and its lessons of charity and goodwill are, indeed, timeless. Adapted for the stage by Prairie Fire's Deborah Pick, the play brings together people of all ages to present a special family event to kick off the holidays. Join Scrooge in his journeys with the Ghosts of Christmas Past, Present, and Future, who show him his life as he's never seen it before.

The local cast features: (cast list)

Prairie Fire professionals _____ and _____, who co-direct the pro-(see bio) (see bio)
duction, will play the roles of Ebenezer Scrooge and the Ghost of Christmas Present.

Tickets are _____ and are available at _____.
cost advance outlet(s) and/or at the door

(Optional mention of any special aspects you may have incorporated to enhance performances, ie: food drives, concessions, group discounts, etc.)

This Prairie Fire residency is being sponsored by _____.
sponsor(s) and funding sources

For more information, contact _____.
sponsor contact information and phone number

